Capper-Tincher Bill Passed.

Senate Takes Action Without Dissenting Vote After Brief Debate.

Measure Goes to President as Soon as Differences Are Adjusted.

BY GRAFTON S. WILCOX.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Capper-Tincher bill, providing for Federal regulation of grain exchanges, was passed by the Senate today without a dissenting vote, after brief debate.

Proceeding passage of the bill, Senator Capper of Kansas, one of the authors of the measure, denounced the Chicago Board of Trade as the "biggest gambling hell in the world." Joseph P. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, and L. F. Gates, former president of the board, sat in the gallery and listened to the speech. After the bill had been passed, Griffin, with the approval of representatives of other grain exchanges, issued a statement to the effect that in view of the modifications made by the Senate to the original bill, the exchanges would continue in operation. When the bill was passed by the House, some of the exchanges, including the Chicago Board of Trade, threatened to shut out of business if it became a law.

DECLARED UNNECESSARY.
"It is the deliberate judgment of the grain exchanges, however, that the bill is generally that legislation to regulate their business is entirely unnecessary," said Griffin. "Consequently, we have not advocated

CUB BEAR WALKS IN ON MAYOR.

Hylan Somewhat Disconcerted Over Visitor Who Tries to Scale Wall.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Mayor Hylan was munching on a chicken sandwich today when a black cub bear ambled unannounced into his office in the City Hall. His honor laid his sandwich on a pile of official documents awaiting his signature and assumed a defensive attitude. The cub was in the custody of three men who entered and announced that, having captured the animal in the Adlon-docks, they knew no one more worthy to receive it than the Mayor. The visitors were George Storch, Robert Vincent and James Hadgraft, of Port Washington, L. I.

While the Mayor was meditating young brunt, attracted by the various historic paintings, endeavored to scale the wall. Mr. Hylan, who had resumed eating his sandwich, handed it out to the animal as an inducement to desist. The cub, appreciative of Hylan's interest in bears as well as in the common people, ate the sandwich with relish, but gave preference to the chicken part of it.

"Let him be taken to the zoo in Prospect Park," said the Mayor. "I am not forgetting that he himself lives in Brooklyn."

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Mayor Hylan was interrogated for nearly five hours today by the legislative committee investigating his administration, but he disclaimed responsibility for the enormous increase in the city's debt since he assumed office.

He continually reminded the committee that he was not the financial officer of the city and took the position that he could not be expected to be conversant with details of its financial problems.

Prior to the interrogation Mayor Hylan read a lengthy statement in which he attacked the methods of the committee, the legislation which made it possible, and declared that "department for department, New York would compare favorably with the corresponding departments in any city in the country."

DOFFS UNION SHACKLES.

Signs of Sanity in San Francisco.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Freed from the domination of the labor unions affiliated with the local Building Trades Council, San Francisco has embarked on a reconstruction campaign that has for its object wresting from Los Angeles its laurels as the premier city of the Pacific Coast. The old fighting spirit that built a city on a waste of sand dunes in the days of the Argonauts, that organized the Vigilantes to drive out the undesirable twenty years later, and that strove superior to earthquakes and fire in 1906, has again been manifested to a degree that has filled with terror the hearts of the once arrogant walking delegates.

San Francisco is going to be run hereafter on the American plan. The floor of opportunity will be closed to all but those possessing the passport to the labor unions. The employers propose to run their own business. Mothers have weaned of seeing their sons driven from the city by the sinking fund of the city's debt. More than 10,000 workmen have, themselves, revolted against paying tribute to the business agents in return for the privilege of holding a job.

OPEN SHOP POPULAR.
San Francisco possesses a community spirit perhaps higher developed than that of any other city in the West, and that community spirit has declared against the closed shop. It is more unpopular here today with a great majority of the citizens, than it ever has been in Los Angeles. If any other community was concerned I would say that the enthusiasm for the American plan was too tepid to run the city. I lived for several years in San Francisco and know something of its people. When they once set their backs to a task, they never turn back, and I find them just as determined in putting the American plan into general application as they were on rebuilding after the earthquake.

Twelve months ago the domination of the labor unions in the building trades was complete. Not a hand of men, apparently holding a badge of membership, was working on this side of the bay. At present practically $20,000,000 of construction is under way.

CONGRESS WANTS VACATION.

Loafing Period to Begin Towards End of Next Week, is the Belief of Leaders.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Congress, in the light of today's developments, hopes to begin a month's recess at the end of next week. After a conference with President Harding, Republican leaders of the Senate and House indicated that both would remain continuously in session until the House has passed the tax revision bill, which Chairman Fordney of the Ways and Means Committee told the President would be reported Monday.

Find New Clue to Lost Priest; Held Prisoner.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Attention of searchers for Father Patrick E. Heslin, missing Colma Catholic priest, tonight was drawn to the region between Truckee, Cal., and Reno, Nev. Word came that San Francisco police authorities that a band of men, apparently holding an old man in restraint, is camping somewhere in the mountains between these two cities.

Chief of Police Brien of San Francisco announced that he had sent telegrams to police authorities at Reno and Truckee urging thorough investigation of the report.

and not a single building in the whole business district is being erected under closed-shop conditions. In Alameda, however, the fight for the open shop already has begun. Bowler to the inevitable building trades council on the east side of the bay has directed the members of the unions affiliated with it to return to work under the American plan. The greatest victory ever won for the open shop in Northern California. For three months the American building trades unions have been on strike. Their treasury is now empty and the pluck of the strikers is being driven to the majority of the members either out of the city or back to work.

BUILDERS ARE FIRM. Conferences of the labor union leaders are held nightly. They have come to realize that they cannot hold their men longer in line. They have offered to agree to any conditions short of open recognition of the building trades council on the east side of the bay. The employers are working short handed, but building is going ahead.

Three months ago about 12,000 men in the building trades went on strike. Work on every important building in the city stopped. At present reconstruction on more than half of them has been resumed. About 4000 men are working and the number is increasing at the rate of 100 a day. Probably 2500 of them are quit. They have returned, and about 3500 are in from the outside. Several hundred of the strikers went to Southern California, and are working in the last years to leave San Francisco in order to obtain employment. Many of these have now come back.

By the terms of the stringent rules enforced by the unions against the employment of apprentices, hundreds of young men have been forced in the last years to leave San Francisco in order to obtain employment. Many of these have now come back.

Many of the crafts had an apprenticeship system which gave four months ago before the arbitration commission which attempted to settle the dispute. The commission found that the union rules were too strict. The union leaders of the bricklayers and of the members of some of the other crafts, and are working to create an artificial labor shortage in order to prevent a reduction in wages when the strike ends generally receding.

Four months ago the building trades union of the American plan was announced. It had made new demands for increased wages and shorter hours. A neutral arbitration committee was agreed upon to effect a compromise. It recommended a reduction in wages averaging about 7 1/2 per cent. The building trades council, through its president, P. H. McCarthy, announced that the union would not accept the findings of the commission, and a strike followed. By refusing to keep their agreement to abide by the decision of the arbitration committee the unions turned public opinion against them. The industrial Association of San Francisco was organized with Athol McLean, retiring president of the Chamber of Commerce, at its head, and the building trades union was replaced by the independent workers. Labor bureau was formed in Southern California and a number of eastern industrial districts, and the movement of outside workers seeking employment here in 1918 he has been in the city. It has proved heavier than the industrial Association expected. The industrial group in the city has been easy to recruit skilled workers. They are now arriving here by every train.

At the present rate of increase there will be no shortage of workers here by November 1," said Mr. McLean. This afternoon, "We are not discriminating against members of the building trades unions. We prefer to employ residents of San Francisco. But we have determined that the American plan shall be enforced. We consider the strike in the building industry already won, but we

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—President Harding is very hopeful of good results from the Washington conference, which he will welcome on November 11, now definitely announced as the opening date. Discussions will be given as much publicity as possible.

Without a dissenting vote the Senate today passed the Capper-Tincher bill to regulate grain exchanges. Preceding passage of the bill the Chicago Board of Trade was denounced by Senator Capper of Kansas as "the biggest gambling hell" in the world.

The House ratified the conference report on the bill establishing Federal regulation of the meat-packing industry.

President Harding signed the Sweet bill for the relief of disabled veterans and appointed Col. Charles R. Forbes to head the new veterans' bureau.

By a vote of 8 to 4 the Senate Privileges and Elections Committee today exonerated Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan, finding completely unavailing the charges of Henry Ford.

Passage of the railroad funding bill would put 1,000,000 idle men to work, according to Eugene Meyer, Jr., of the War Finance Corporation, who testified today before the Senate Finance Committee.

The question of a dye embargo was argued today before the Senate Finance Committee by George Deming of Philadelphia and E. J. Ragsdale of Norristown, Pa., opposing, and E. H. Kellogg of Milwaukee, Wis., in favor of the provision.

shall not relax our efforts. There will be no drifting back to former conditions. The labor union domination of industry in San Francisco is definitely ended.

WORK IS RESUMED. Construction work on all the important buildings in the business district has been resumed and is said to be progressing satisfactorily. Plans are under way for rebuilding on several thousand feet of frontage that has been occupied since the fire of 1906.

San Franciscoans are just beginning to realize the damage that has been done to the city during the last fifteen years by the artificial labor shortage. In the business district there probably 10,000 buildings were damaged at the time of the earthquake and that have never been replaced. That meant $10,000,000 of property lying idle and paying taxes for fifteen years. The original investment has been wiped out. All that remains to the owners is the increase in value during that time.

After conversing with more than a score of business men I am convinced that it is the Los Angeles example which has made the revolt against labor union domination possible.

If we had done this fifteen years ago Los Angeles would not have gone ahead as it has in the last census and our industry would not have been so crippled. I am sure of it. Last year we were operating under the closed-shop plan and three times as many building permits were issued in Los Angeles as there was here. That is convincing proof to us that we shall find further relief.

We have as good a climate as Southern California and superior natural advantages. It is because of our own shortsightedness that we have made this city so far ahead. That is changed now, and you of the south are likely to be the first to feel the benefit when the next census reports come in.

DISCOVER SECRET. I find a spirit of emulation here rather than jealousy. San Franciscoans recognize that it is something better than climate that has made Los Angeles go ahead. They feel assured that they have discovered the secret of our progress and they are determined to make use of it.

Los Angeles has set a record for development and San Francisco is determined to make a better one. But it is not a rivalry born of animus.

"San Francisco has benefited by the growth of Los Angeles and will continue to do so," said a banker to me this afternoon. "The more people there are in your city the better market there will be for San Francisco products. We can ship our goods to you in twenty-four hours by water at one-fourth the cost of the overland freight rates from the East. The Los Angeles market is going to be the best for us."

"The faster you grow the more of our goods you will consume and the more rapid will be the growth of our industry. We have the better harbor and are in a superior position to handle the trade of the Pacific, so we have no fear that you will take our trade away from us. I hope you will get another half million people in the next ten years. It will make business better in San Francisco if you do."

That statement typifies the new San Francisco attitude. It means much for the future development of the Pacific area. While I am firm in the faith that we shall lead, I am of the opinion that San Francisco is going to make it a real race for supremacy on the Pacific Coast.

Torture Was Once Stylish

And even today you can see people crowding their poor, aching feet into tight, cramping shoes because someone once said they were stylish. There is no style so fine looking as the comfortable style. The shoe that looks uncomfortable cannot be good looking. Ground Grippers are fine looking shoes because they look comfortable and they are comfortable. No more ugly, overlapping toes, painful corns and bunions, weak, falling arches. If you wear Ground Grippers.

For Ground Grippers correct as well as prevent these serious foot faults. They are built on a special last to conform with Nature. Let your feet rest on Ground Grippers. You will never go back to the old, painful shoes that make life miserable.

GROWERS WILL PRESENT CASE.

Almond Men to Appear Before Senators Today.

Walnut Raisers Also Seeking Early Hearing.

Governor Wires His Appeal to Washington.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—California almond growers will present their case tomorrow at 10:30 before the Senate Finance Committee and will introduce new evidence to show that the real scientific minimum for almonds to preserve the California industry is 5 cents on unshelled and 15 cents on the shelled nuts.

Senator Shortridge will present personally the committee's General Manager Tucker of the California Almond Growers' Association, who has been in the East for several days preparing for the hearing. Through the efforts of Senator Shortridge the Finance Committee has granted a hearing out of turn for this California product in order that Mr. Tucker may return to California at once to handle the new crop just being harvested.

The walnut growers of California represented by Mr. Teague and Mr. Thorpe, both of Los Angeles, hope also to get a prompt hearing before the same committee to present their reasons for an increase in duty from that granted by the Fordney bill in its present form. Efforts are being made to have the walnut case presented immediately following that of the almond men, but this has not been definitely determined at a late hour tonight.

MEETS WITH SENATOR. George N. Hamilton of Claremont, who is interested in raising the tariff on the products of the lemon and citrus industry generally, has arrived in Washington and had a conference with Senator Shortridge this morning. He has had several meetings with congressional leaders, including G. Harold Gurnea, and a comparison of notes will precede the arguments before the Finance Committee on these subjects. Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Powell and others will appear before the Finance Committee tomorrow.

In the meantime a general conference between Mr. Powell, Mr. Hamilton, the California Senators and the Congressmen from the citrus districts of the State is being tentatively arranged to clarify the entire situation and prepare for the presentation of all the new figures and recommendations for higher duty rates on the lemon and citrus products.

STEFFENS APPEALS. (BY A. P. MORT WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Gov. Steffens, in San Francisco, has wired to Sacramento, Cal., to telegraph United States Senators Ferguson, Smoot and Watson of the Senate Finance Committee the demands of California almond growers for a minimum protective tariff of 15 cents on unshelled almonds and 15 cents on shelled almonds, instead of the 4 and 12-cent rates provided in the Fordney bill.

The Governor, in his message said: "Information furnished me by almond growers in California indicates that the present tariff of 4 and 12 cents on unshelled almonds is the minimum necessary to protect this great industry. If adequate protection is furnished, American growers will be enabled to meet the competition of the world."

Representatives of the California Almond Growers' Exchange are expected to appear before the Senate Finance Committee tomorrow. T. C. Tucker of San Francisco, who is in Washington directing the almond fight, telegraphed here tonight that the presentation of the case had been completed at a conference today between the growers and the committee.

Both Senators, Tucker said, have announced their intention to appear before the committee in support of the almond growers' demands.

error to furnish no securities other than his signature. Governor Small, however, had been told by the Governor's attorney that the Governor's signature was not sufficient.

A short discussion with the attorney followed, during which the Sheriff terminated with: "I do not question this bond and do not refuse to take it here, but I will not accept it at this place."

Groups of curious citizens gathered on the sidewalks fringing the mansion grounds became amalgamated into one large crowd at the edge of the driveway as the Sheriff's car sped past bearing the prominent prisoner.

MANY LEGAL LIGHTS. Attorney General George W. Warren, head of the Legislative Reference Bureau; Capt. A. E. Ingles, the Governor's son-in-law; Leslie Small, the Governor's son, and other political and legal advisers followed in other cars. The Court house was reached at 10:30. A large crowd already had gathered on the side and outside. So tightly were they wedged in the Sheriff's outer office that they had to force their way through and stand guard at the gate to prevent them from joining into the Sheriff's private office.

Gov. Small presented the Sheriff with a signed copy of the opinion which he had read to him yesterday, holding that under the Constitution a governor is immune from arrest while in office. There was considerable argument over the bonds.

After more discussion during which State Attorney Mortimer insisted that the form of the bond prepared by the Governor's counsel be slightly changed, Gov. Small hurriedly left with his retinue. He pulled his hat tightly down on his head and looked neither to the right nor left as he strode through the crowd of spectators which had been opened for his exit.

Commuters Playing Good Ball

Weird Base Running by Tigers
Blows the Works.

Lefty Winn Pitches Well and Gets the Breaks.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

"Every one a champion," smiled
Dell Howard, big chief of the Oaks,
and smiling the action to the word,
the peppy visitors have to and bruised the Bengals, 3 to 0.

While the final score was 3 to 0,
it should not have been thus. For
the base running compassed the Tigers' defeat—a defeat that might have flowered into a victory had the Vernon lads watched their step on
the base.

Even at that it was hardly in the books for the Oaks men to win
when they were deprived of the good offices of their high priestess who had transplanted her cranks to the Catalina Islands, near that attitude
where the goats waste their fragrance on the mountain air.

DOES WELL.

Lefty Winn was hit upon by Manager Mize to port side the Bengals into submission and he did his work well. He was a fact that the shoes flickered around his efforts
several times during the proceeding.
McGraw drew the drag post of wonder from Bill Eick and heaved miffly. He cannot be reprehended for the errors of commission and omission (on the sacks) of his peppy fellows.

The visitors started out portucously for Vernon. Pinnell, the man up, showed a dashing single to center that had not only on it. Trying to pull off his league stuff in the piffing line he fell an easy prey to Hannah's wing, assisted by French. Winn, the famous Demo-—wiggled himself into a walk.
Cather tried to pry one past French,
but that worthy was alert—grabbed
it easily and shot the pill to Locker.
OH, THAT THROW.

It was a hit-and-run proposition—
therefore, Dennis was too close to second to kill. Hence the throw to first. Hack Miller dived a serpent at French which drew the crack short far in the right. French should never have thrown the ball,
but ambition warped his judgment
and he let the egg flicker with much altitude on it with the result that Dennis fitted safely over the plate, leaving Hack chuckling forlornly on first. Knight forced Miller at second, Locker to Zelder.

In the sixth, the Commuters were into the run column again. It was about like this: Winn hit a snappy one to Alcock, who made a snappy stop shooting the pill to Locker. My, but it was close and

WILSON-DOWNEY BOUT ASSURED.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Tex
Rickard announced today that the proposed return scramble between Johnny Wilson and Bryan Downey was practically clinched. There still remains a little financial adjustment to be considered before the final papers are signed and the necessary wheels put in operation to start the two boys in another jam at Rickard's big arena in Jersey City September 5.

It appears that the Downey interests insist that they are entitled to as much financial consideration as Wilson. However, Tex does not anticipate any lengthy trouble in the matter and he is sure that everything will be settled amicably in a few days.

nounced here early today. The

Los Angeles Boat Victorious
in Ketch Races.

Capt. Henry Dinning of the Mah
Pe said all three yachts, which sailed from San Francisco Saturday and for whom safety anxiety had been expressed, were becalmed twelve hours off Pigeon Point and encountered light airs most of the rest of the way down. He sighted the Schance off Point Arguello today and expected her and the Seward, the other boats in the race, early tomorrow. The Katedina was also en route to Santa Barbara from San Francisco, but sailed Monday and was not in the race.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)
SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 9.—The Mah Pe, first in the yacht race from San Francisco to Santa Barbara,
which began Saturday noon, arrived
here shortly after dark.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 9.—
Succeeding down the coast for Santa Barbara tonight are the four San Francisco Yacht Club boats—the Seward, 100-foot schooner owned by Ted Lowe; the Katedina, owned by Ed Vanbergen, a 70-foot schooner;
65-foot yawl, owned by L. A. Morris, and the Mah Pe, 40-foot sloop, owned by A. H. Dinning, which since last Saturday have been standing together buffeting contrary winds, or rocking in dead calms for hours at a time. Radio messages tonight located them thirty miles north of Santa Barbara, and lessening the distance as spanking winds hallooed their sails and sent them through the sea.

They are making a race, according to set rules, or each could have easily been here Monday morning to join in the opening day of the first annual regatta of the Southern California Yacht Association. Each sailing master preferred to buck the winds blowing him from his destination, or rock through dead calms
and meet conditions of the race.

LEADS OTHERS.

The Mah Pe, last heard of, was leading the three others by five miles; the Seward had shown increasing speed since yesterday morning. All on board, say the wireless messages from a steamer which spoke to the boats, were well and determined to win the race.

Later this afternoon a bounding wind developed on the channel and added materially to the features of the opening races between sloops, yawls and ketches which officially opened the regatta here today. The boats were sent over a fourteen-mile course and as seen from the land, presented a merry sight as they negotiated the winds. It was a perfect day for development of perfect yachtmanship, say the regatta fans.

FIRST PLACE.

Lady Betty, owned by Capt. John Barnes of Los Angeles, took first place in the results of the sloop race this afternoon. The Alert crossed the line second, but was disqualified by a technicality and second place was officially given to the Gretchen.

In the races between the yawls
and ketches Mollitoul, owned by Milton Hesselberger of Los Angeles, was first; Nigger Boy, second; Ortuna, owned by Dr. F. F. Leubersheimer of Los Angeles crossed third, and the Winsome, H. T. Morrow of Los Angeles, fourth. Nigger Boy was entered to run over the course for an arbitrary handicap for races tomorrow and she was not officially accorded second place in today's events.

DEDICATE NEW GOLF LINKS.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

The opening of the new north course, one of the most pictorially perfect golf links in Southern California and a real test of the ancient game invented by the St. Andrews godfathers, will be fittingly celebrated today at the Los Angeles Country Club.

Miss Margaret Cameron, Northern California golf champion for women, and Everett Seaver, former Southern California champ, will play Miss Doreen Kavanagh, State champion for women, and George C.
Thomas Jr., godfather of the new

north course, in a special exhibition mixed foursomes match.

On paper this meeting seems to offer the best possibilities for a real battle of the right hand in the second round, but it is a long time.
The male parties to the match are very evenly matched. Both are topnotch golfers and real sportsmen
in every sense of the word, and can be counted on to play sound and consistent games.

While Miss Kavanagh was easily beaten by Miss Cameron in the Southern California championship
this year she was overgated at the time, and she has friends and back-ers by the scores who believe she can beat Miss Kavanagh most any time.

Miss Kavanagh's game, however,
has developed in a striking way the past year. She plays her strokes like a man and with a sure-froid and assurance that betokens the champion. Few will forget her brazen shot to the tenth hole in the match with Miss Cameron at Midwick in May—a full shot that entered the narrow approach to the green and was the turning point in the match.
Miss Cameron had played her second shot badly, and it took her complet-ly by surprise when Miss Kavanagh,
at a Ted Ray, went boldly for the green, and made it.

At any rate today's match will offer the native golf sharps much food for thought when comparing the respective merits of Miss Cameron of Annandale and Miss Kavanagh of Los Angeles.

over Tommy Gibbons in the Gibbons-Carpentier bout to be held in New York next month by Jack Dempsey, champion heavyweight
pugilist, who spent several hours in Denver today. Dempsey, and his trainer, Teddy Hayes, are on their way to Los Angeles after a vacation
of ten days spent in Antonio, Colo., Dempsey's childhood home.

"Put your money on Carpentier is my advice," Dempsey told friends who met him at his hotel. "That man Carpentier is the best in the world for his weight."

The champion said his trip to New York to confer with Kearns had been postponed.

ber-jack combination, stepped into the ring in the main event at Vernon last night and made Young George look like an Auto Club picture of the State Highway. Carlo took a few of George's famous rights, showing his head in a contented sort of way,
and proceeded to slam the pride of the Southern Pacific shops all over the ring.

Carlo was a rather tough proposition for George to solve and at the end of the fourth round he was still a mystery. George mixed with him, hit him and rode him around the ring, but it all slipped off without ill effects. And in the fourth Carlo opened up some give-and-take stuff
and came away easily the victor.
The dark horse can hit hard and has undoubtedly been told how to stay away from George's rights. He took several of them, but managed to get a glancing, rather than full effect.

While George wasn't down and
out at the finish by a long shot,
he was decisively beaten.

IS DISGUSTING.

The semi-wind-up was a disgusting and revolting exhibition of what a four-round boxing match shouldn't be. Gene Cline was placed in the square with George Drew and for thirty seconds there was a lightning slugging match. Then Drew slowed up and for three rounds and half Cline slammed the negro fighter all over the place.

He drew a swat on the ear that brought on the well-known cauliflower effects, and after the delicate membrane had swelled up to the size of a balloon, another blow
exploded the thing all over the arena.
Drew was down and out for three rounds, but managed to stand up to an awful beating. It was a one-sided, brutal, sickening scrap and should have been stopped—or rather never put on.

ERTLE THERE.

Bobby Erle put up a noble fight
and defeated Louis Garcia decisively.
He hurt his right hand in the second round, but managed to turn the trick, one-handed. Larry Jones beat Casey Smith in a good bout.
Frankie Murphy beat Young Campion, Morrissey put Elliot away in the third. Williams won from Battling Frankie.

GIBBONS IS VICTOR OVER JEFF SMITH.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)
JERSEY CITY (N. J.) Aug. 9.—
Mike Gibbons of St. Paul out-boxed Jeff Smith of Bayonne, N. J., in a twelve-round, no decision bout tonight. Smith slowed up after the early rounds and the western boxer landed the more blows. Gibbons weighed 155 pounds, and Smith 165. Gibbons was floored in the second round with a right hook to the jaw, but was up immediately.

President Bruner has decided to hold a similar shoot next Sunday.

One hundred targets constitutes the shoot, which will be in four events of twenty-five birds each. The shooters start each event from sixteen yards and then either go forward or backward, it depending how good they shoot.

Dell Howard, big chief of the Oaks,

bruised the Bengals, 3 to 0.

While the final score was 3 to 0,
it should not have been thus. For
the base running compassed the Tig-

have flowered into a victory had the Vernon lads watched their step on
the base.

Even at that it was hardly in the

Storage Battery

THERE'S a knack in coaxing a storage battery to be good, and we know what it is.

First of all, any battery'll act peevish if you let it get thirsty. And it'll throw a regular fit and bust if you give it ordinary water. Chemically pure distilled water is our standard drink for batteries — and your battery'll work better and last a lot longer on our service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Chicago broke even in the series with New York by taking the final game today, 5 to 4. Four hits, a pass and a steal gave the White Sox four runs in the second inning off Maya Mausel's home run with the bases full in the third tied the score. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9.—(Jimmy) Ward, 20-year-old Kansas City, Mo., gelding, today led the field in the qualifying round of the trans-Mississippi golf tournament at the Denver Country Club course with a score of 151 for the thirty-six holes and became the association's medalist for the year. Ward had a 77 for the eighteen holes Monday and today turned in a card of 74, two above par.

Robert McKee of Des Moines, Drake University student, and present champion of the association, was three strokes behind Ward and George Von Elm of Salt Lake City State champion, was third, with 155. None of the three leaders is more than 21 years old.

Harry G. Legg of Minneapolis, was the first veteran to rank, getting fourth place, with a score of 154. Thirty-two players qualified for the championship flight, which begins tomorrow with elimination match play. Eighteen holes will be played until the semifinals Friday and the finals Saturday when the matches will go thirty-six holes.

CON PROGRAM.

Speed boat races have been put on the program for tomorrow morning if the Los Angeles motor boats arrive and in the afternoon the yachts and sloops will try for speed over the same course as that sailed today.

The big result of the regatta, according to members of the Southern California Yacht Association is expected to be the building of a breaker at Santa Barbara, as an incentive to yacht ownership here. All visiting yachtsmen are boasting this feature of the regatta so far as the townspeople are concerned.

GOOD INVESTMENT.

"One of the best investments which the city of Santa Barbara could make is a protected anchorage," said Shirley Messers, vice-commodore of the Newport Harbor Yacht Club and part owner with Admiral Holland of the Viking IV, a fine yacht which is here for the races.

The average person does not understand the need of a protected anchorage. He is likely to think that in the summer there is no danger, but the yachtsman with several thousand dollars tied up in a fine vessel doesn't want to take any chances, naturally. Everything may be all right and again, it may not. A wind from the east would sweep the beach here in a short time. A wind from the east strong enough to do that doesn't often come in the summer, and yet it may. We can't be easy in our minds while that possibility exists."

The last thing Commodore Dustin Farnum, who is a good sport and a regular fellow, assured me was that he would come up and bring as many of the fast ones as he was possible. They should be in today or tomorrow if they are coming."

Tonight the yachtsmen are enjoying a smoker on the boats as the guests of the Santa Barbara Yacht Club. The ladies of the yachtsmen will be entertained at El Morisco and in the evening all

Finney could have called it either way without a tumor on his conscience. Did Dennis kick? Well, the die he did. He tore up ten yards of the richest soil that one could covet for one's lawn before the time he madly settled calmly in his home, but Finney was relentless and the verdict stood.

COPS RIPE ONE.

Cather gathered a ripe one for a mashing two-bagger that ricocheted near the foul line clear to the fence. Miller drove a torrid single to left, shoving Cather over the rubber. After Knight had broken several boards in the left-field fence for innocuous fouls, he biffed the air out, roughly almost throwing his arms out of the game.

Lou Guisto gassed one to center sending Hank to third, where reached first base in time to catch the throw. Chadbourne's throw, during the play, Lou flinched to second. Guisto was an easy out, French to Locke.

NORTH TO MEET SOUTH IN RING.

L.A.A.C. Boxers to Mix With Winged O Scrappers.

Athletic Club Has a Swell Chancy With Champions.

Blake and Van Court Take Boys North Monday.

The Athletic Club has undertaken to give the mitt thumpers of the Olympic Club a boxing lesson and is sending north next Monday a prize batch of scrappers to mix with the Winged O men in a tourney August 17.

This is the first interclub athletic affair the two rivals have staged for some time, and indications point to a wild evening of gory entertainment. Since the Olympic and Athletic Clubs tied for the national A. U. Junior track and field championships at Pasadena last month and each has said nasty things about the other guy because he didn't win there has been no love lost between the organizations.

Since that time the Winged O swimmers centered away with the Pacific Coast championship with the L.A.A.C. dragging its tail behind. But with Charley Jenkins, national welterweight champion, and Ad Geyer, Pacific Coast welterweight champion, heading the list, aided and abetted by several plain Southern California champs the Athletic Club sees a fine chance to douse the haughty Post-street institution's colors in the mud.

Eight L.A.A.C. boys, pupils of George Blake and Dr. Whit Van Court, will be taken north. Both instructors will go along, as will Wall Wheeler, chairman of the boxing committee of the club.

The three Southern California titleholders who will demonstrate their worth and might in the north are Ed Wollman, bantamweight champion; August Gatto, featherweight champion, and William Zukis, 112-pound champion.

Besides Jenkins and Geyer, there will be Joseph Gomez, a tough lightweight; Ad Algrini, middleweight; and Max Spindler, light heavyweight.

Each of these boys will meet some northern aspirant for honors and to top off a regular program several bouts have been carded between Olympic Club lads who have no opponents from the south to trade blows with.

MRS. BUNDY IS HUMBLER AGAIN.

All her shots were coming off beautifully and she virtually smothered her opponent's returns by aggressive overhead and volleying attacks.

PLAYS HELEN.

Miss Eleanor Goss took her match from Miss Phyllis Walsh of Philadelphia, today, the sets going at 6-0, 6-4, and once again the West Side Tennis Club girl demonstrated that she is up to her best form. Her ground strokes are second to those of no other woman player in this country in speed and pace, and her service is quite the most severe of the courts among the fair sex.

Tomorrow Miss Goss will face little Miss Helen Williams of California, the 15-year-old prodigy.

The California school girl triumphed over Miss Goss Baker of East Orange, by a score of 6-2, 6-4, today and a goodly portion of the gallery switched over from the grand stand to watch these two girls.

Miss Helen Williams, the 15-year-old prodigy, is improving daily. Her overhead stroke is becoming more and more assured, and even though she frequently throws points away today by a bit of a "ball," Miss Baker grew cautious about offering her opponent anything except long drives and volleys.

YOUNG GOLFER IN LEAD.

DENVER, Aug. 9.—J. C. (Jimmy) Ward, 20-year-old Kansas City, Mo., golfer, today led the field in the qualifying round of the trans-Mississippi golf tournament at the Denver Country Club course with a score of 151 for the thirty-six holes and became the association's medalist for the year.

Robert McKee of Des Moines, Drake University student, and present champion of the association, was three strokes behind Ward and George Von Elm of Salt Lake City State champion, was third, with 155. None of the three leaders is more than 21 years old.

Harry G. Legg of Minneapolis, was the first veteran to rank, getting fourth place, with a score of 154. Thirty-two players qualified for the championship flight, which begins tomorrow with elimination match play. Eighteen holes will be played until the semifinals Friday and the finals Saturday when the matches will go thirty-six holes.

CON PROGRAM.

Speed boat races have been put on the program for tomorrow morning if the Los Angeles motor boats arrive and in the afternoon the yachts and sloops will try for speed over the same course as that sailed today.

The big result of the regatta, according to members of the Southern California Yacht Association is expected to be the building of a breaker at Santa Barbara, as an incentive to yacht ownership here. All visiting yachtsmen are boasting this feature of the regatta so far as the townspeople are concerned.

GOOD INVESTMENT.

"One of the best investments which the city of Santa Barbara could make is a protected anchorage," said Shirley Messers, vice-commodore of the Newport Harbor Yacht Club and part owner with Admiral Holland of the Viking IV, a fine yacht which is here for the races.

The average person does not understand the need of a protected anchorage. He is likely to think that in the summer there is no danger, but the yachtsman with several thousand dollars tied up in a fine vessel doesn't want to take any chances, naturally. Everything may be all right and again, it may not. A wind from the east would sweep the beach here in a short time. A wind from the east strong enough to do that doesn't often come in the summer, and yet it may. We can't be easy in our minds while that possibility exists."

The last thing Commodore Dustin Farnum, who is a good sport and a regular fellow, assured me was that he would come up and bring as many of the fast ones as he was possible. They should be in today or tomorrow if they are coming."

the regatta of the Los Angeles Motor Boat Club, the motor boat races were not run, according to program. A considerable crowd on the wharf this morning was disappointed because the scheduled speed boat races were not staged. The reason is that the power boats of the Los Angeles Motor Boat Club failed to make the trip north, so that the only fast craft of this type in the harbor is Earl Miller's Mimi California, from San Francisco.

SPEED FILMS AGAIN.

By Edwin Schallert.

Indicates the betterment of conditions in the film world, a campaign of intensified picture production is to be started September 1 by Universal. Announcement of this fact has just been made from the studios with a full outline of the program. Every unit, it is stated, will begin filming at that time.

Production activities have been restrained to some extent, it is understood, in anticipation of this resumption. Preparations are, however, shortly to be under way for the renewed speed.

Irving Thalberg has just made the following announcement regarding stars and pictures:

Harry Carey will open the season with "Man to Man," from a novel by Jackson Gregory; Francis Dean will begin work on "Wild Honey," a colorful drama of the African veldt from the story by Cynthia Stockley; Gladys Walton will film "The Outcasts," from the story by Percival Wilde; Miss Dupont will be busy on her second starring picture, "Ropes," from a one-act play by Wilbur Daniel Steele, which appeared in Harper's Magazine; Fred May has a sea story called "For Jim," Marie Prevost will appear in another ready-made comedy drama, called "Kissed," from the story by Arthur Somers Roche; Herbert Rawlinson will be starred in "The Black Bag," by Louis Joseph Vance, and Hook Gibson is to be featured in a new original by De Witt Gate called "Headin' West."

Other stories have been announced as in reserve for production immediately after these are finished. So it looks like a brisk season at the U.

Goldwyn's Hastens Pace.

At Goldwyn studio two productions are speeding up right along. Three new companies will start picture-making this week, in addition to one already under way.

"The Wall Flower," written directly for the screen by Rupert Hughes, is being cultivated by Director E. Mason Hopper. Colleen Moore is playing the title role. Richard Dix has the leading male role. Others in the cast are Tom Gallery, Shannon Day, Gertrude Astor and Fanny Stockbridge.

"Grand Larceny," a screen version of Albert Payson Terhune's story, is being directed by Wallace Worley. Lowell Sherman, most polished villain of the screen, has been added to the distinguished cast, which comprises also Elliott Dexter, Claire Windsor, Tom Gallery, Roy Atwell and Richard Tucker.

Raymond Hatton has been brought back to the studio and is to have an excellent part in "His Back Against the Wall," a marine story by John Frederick, which has been adapted to the screen by Julien Josephson. Rowland Lee is directing.

A fourth production under way at the Goldwyn studios is "The Sin Flood," which is attracting wide attention in picture circles by the brilliance of its cast and the unusual nature of its theme. It is being directed by Frank Lloyd and was adapted from the Swedish story "Syndföden" by Henning Berger. The cast includes Wallace Reid, who acted in New York and every country of Europe. The New York presentation was made by Arthur Hopkins under the title of "The Deluge." In the cast are Richard Dix, Helene Chadwick, James Kirkwood, John Shepley, Ralph Strickland, Howard Davis, Will Walling, Darwin Karr, Otto Hoffman and L. H. King.

Lillian Gish Injured.

With Mrs. Mae Gish, mother of Lillian and Dorothy, still in the hospital, and Lillian Gish herself suffering from torn muscles in her left wrist, a period of unfortunate events seems to have overtaken the Gish household in the East.

Mrs. Gish has been critically ill. It will be recalled, for the last few months she has been entirely recovered from a shock she suffered in London, and her heart is in a weakened condition. She was, however, at last reports, resting easier at the Presbyterian Hospital in New York.

The experience which led to the spraining of Lillian Gish's wrist was not without its thrill. It happened just last week, when she threatened to destroy the French village built for scenes in "The Two Orphans," at the Griffith studios in Manhattan. The set, which includes several blocks of a French village, cost approximately $150,000.

Fire of unknown origin started on the third story of one of the main structures at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Griffith and his company were in the projection room.

Miss Gish, who weighs but ninety-eight pounds, dragged a fifty-five-pound can of fire extinguisher two blocks to the burning building, causing the straining of the muscles.

Griffith, himself, was burned about the neck by falling brands.

Borah En Route.

Frank Borah is en route to the West to assume charge of his own productions here. Mr. Borah is noted as the director of "Humoresque," "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," "Back Pay," and other features.

Writes Mystery Play.

Some interest will perhaps attach to the fact that Col. Jasper Ewing Brady, of the Metro Film Company, has written a mystery play called "Superstition," which is going into rehearsal under the direction of Lee Morrison within a week.

Theda Bara to Tour.

A personal appearance tour is the latest venture of Theda Bara. She will visit Detroit, Chicago, Louisville, Cincinnati and Atlantic City, among other cities. She is taking with her a single reel of film showing her in the studio, in the theater and at home.

"Little glimpses of the vamp during her fame moments" is the way the picture is described. The tour was arranged by Lee Ocha.

Italian Opera Story Reaches Screen Here.

Scene from "Rigoletto," which is to have special preview for charity this afternoon at the Ambassador Theater.

"RIGOLETTO" IN SHADOWS TODAY.

The first Italian feature picture to reach the screen in this city since the war will have a special preview for the benefit of the Assistance League this afternoon at the Ambassador Theater. It is the shadow version of "Le Roi d'Amour" by Victor Hugo, from which the opera "Rigoletto" was adapted. The play was produced by the Jupiter Film Company of Torino, Italy, and the rights are controlled in this country by the Romyne Super-Film Company.

The story of the Jester's tragedy is a familiar one to the lovers of lyric-drama and plays of the past. Specially invited guests are to attend the preview.

WANTS ORIGINALS.

New Goldwyn Editor Expects Best From That Source.

That the Goldwyn company is looking for stories written directly for the screen is the statement of Paul Bern, newly appointed scenario editor. Mr. Bern adds that it is not necessary that the writers have established reputations, inasmuch as stories will be considered purely on their merits.

The editor believes that the best screen material can be obtained from those authors who think in terms of pictures, and who write with the camera in mind. He says that novels and plays, something in process of adaptation.

REVISED "PETER" TO PLAY MAJESTIC.

Not content with the excellent reception accorded the premier performance of Marian Wightman's charming comedy, "Peter," Thomas Wilkes, its producer, gave heed to the friendly criticisms of the critics and has had the author make changes in the play that have eliminated many of its heretofore considered weak points.

"Peter" has now been playing for three weeks to capacity houses, but with the presentation next Sunday afternoon of the new version of the play the bill at the Majestic will no doubt prove an even greater attraction. One of the most important changes is an entire new setting for the last act in which the action takes place in a beautiful mountain scene instead of in the home of Peter Irving as at present.

With the perfecting of the play Mr. Wilkes will give it a New York production in the fall, with Robert Edson appearing in the title role as he is in the Majestic.

LYOYD IN "ALL AT SEA."

Harold Lloyd is the glided youth in his fourteenth comedy, "All at Sea," now in its second week of production. While the film is true to Lloyd traditions, there are many unique angles. Jean Haves wrote the script. Lloyd is supported by Mildred Davis, Molly Thompson, Wallie Howe, Charlie Stevenson, Bayliss Lloyd and outside studio talent. Fred Newmeyer is directing.

FINISHING ROLAND SERIAL.

"White Eagle," the Ruth Roland serial is nearing completion. Location work has all been done and the remaining shots are to be taken on the Hal E. Roach studio lot. Scenes this week center in the ranch-house interior, where violence is being done against the much persecuted heroine. Miss Roland is recovering from a severe case of poison oak. So severe was her suffering that she had to give up a trip to Catalina.

HOIT IN "LOST ROMANCE."

Jack Holt, who scored a success in "Midsummer Madness," has the leading male role in "The Lost Romance," the William De Mille production, which opens Sunday at the California Theater. Lois Wilson is the girl in the story. Conrad Nagel, Fontaine La Rue and Mary Kelso have important parts.

OUTDOOR DRAMA.

HENRY HERBERT TO GIVE SHAKESPEARE.

By Grace Kingsley.

Lovers of outdoor drama and of William Shakespeare will be delighted to know that the great bard is, so to speak, to be given an airing. A season of open-air Shakespearean performances, the most artistic that have been done in the West, is shortly to be inaugurated.

Your thanks for this happy state of things will be due to Henry Herbert, at present giving a finely effective and spiritually powerful portrayal of the Christ in the "Pilgrimage Play," being shown at the Hollywood Bowl, and to the "Pilgrimage Play" backers, who have the matter in hand.

The Hollywood Bowl will be used for the presentation of the Shakespearean plays, and it is likely that "Hamlet" will be the first play given, with Mr. Herbert in the role of the Dane. This is a part which he played in London many times, part of the time as a member of Sir Herbert Tree's organization. He is also known in New York in Shakespearean and other classic roles. Afterward other plays, including probably "Richard III," will be given. Mr. Herbert has been a world student of classic drama, and from his storehouse of knowledge will be drawn the best for the staging of the productions.

The "Pilgrimage Play" is proving such a great success that it is certain it will run for at least a fortnight longer, after which preparations for the members of the "Pilgrimage Play" organization will be commenced. Appearing in them will be some of the members of the "Pilgrimage Play," notably Eric Snowden, well-known Shakespearean character, formerly stage director with Sir Herbert Tree and a member of his company.

Fred Niblo Proud Dad.

The household of Fred Niblo, director, and of Enid Bennett, picture star, is a happy one today. Miss Bennett, who in private life is Mrs. Fred Niblo, yesterday morning presented her husband with a fine little daughter. Up to the hour of going to press, the baby had not been named. The little one came into the world at 6:30 yesterday morning at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Dave Butler Shifts.

For all who feel a palpitating interest in the theme, be it known that David Butler isn't going to produce "Is Walked Jimmy" as his next feature, after all. He has decided that the story is too much like those which he has been doing of late, and so has decided on a rural story by way of variety.

Lester Cuneo, Farmer.

Lester Cuneo, the relentless heavy of picturedom, has just purchased an addition to his Beverly Hills property, and is turning it into a vegetable patch. All of which shows that you never can tell. Instead of polishing up his six-shooter, he goes out to the garden, and does the peaceful potato, or rakes out the mild milkweed. And he's not winny. And if you chance to dine at the home of May Allison Wallace Reid or Charley Ray, you're likely as not to eat a baked potato with Lester's monogram on it.

Learned Hoping at Home.

Not all the cowgirls come from the cow country, take it from no less an authority than Guadalupe Warner, who swings a wicked lariat with Frank, Texas Walker at the Orpheum. Miss Warner was born and reared in Jersey City, whose name has nothing to do with Jersey cow and that's where she learned the gentle art of roping, practicing on the domestic fowl and the household dog.

George Cooper Engaged.

George Cooper, veteran of the picture stage as well as the silent drama, has been selected by Rex Ingram for the role of "Mugsy" in his production of "Turn to the Right," for Metro.

Richard Bennett Camouflages.

When "The Hell Diggers" comes to Grauman's next week, if you're a sophisticated theater-goer maybe you'll note what looks like a discrepancy between your program and the play, inasmuch as one Alexander Brown plays a leading role in support of Wallace Reid, looks strangely familiar. In fact, he looks exactly like Richard Bennett. Now sit tight! He really is Richard Bennett.

Having come West to direct pictures for Laiky, and wishing to study them from the inside out, Mr. Bennett thought it better to take an assumed name. But it was just no use trying to fool the ubiquitous P.A. So here you have the truth.

Bill Farnum an Aviator.

From far off Paris comes the thrilling word that William Farnum has purchased an airplane over there. No details are forthcoming, and so we can only speculate feverishly as to why Mr. Farnum should have bought a French airplane instead of waiting until he got home.

Perhaps the daring gentleman, who has played so many wild west roles in Fox pictures, intends coming home via the air. Perhaps he means bringing a cellar home that way. At any rate the fact remains that when Mr. Farnum comes home he will be the richer by one airplane. He already owns motor boats, yachts and a string of ponies, so why not an airplane?

NEWBERRY IS EXONERATED.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Senate Privileges and Elections Committee voted 3 to 4 today to exonerate Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan, from charges that he purchased his election to the Senate in 1915.
The committee declared Henry Ford's accusations against Senator Newberry "completely unsubstantiated" and recommended prompt dismissal of the charges. It reported that Mr. Newberry's expenditures totaled $185,000, which it justified on the ground that the Senator was compelled to spend large sums of money in publicity to offset the fact that the city of the republic, all the others being around 100,000.
The popular saying "Afuera de Mexico todo es Cuautlan" (outside of Mexico City everything is Cuautlan) well exemplifies this. Cuautlan is a little adobe Indian village in the valley of Mexico, typical of the country, and in full contrast with the splendor of the capital with its great wealth and its hundreds of palatial residences. The rural Indian for the most part listens to tales of the splendor of the capital as he would listen to tales of the "one thousand and one nights." But a small percentage of the rural community ever visited it.
Conditions are different today. There are signs of awakening in most of the rural communities, except where the Indian clings to his own language to the exclusion of Spanish.
The capital and other more populous centers are becoming realities to the vision of the rural Indian.

MINERS HAVE TAKEN REDUCTION IN WAGES.
(BY A. P. WIRE)
TONGAH, (Nov.) Aug. 9.—The miners' union of the Tongah and Divide district voted last night to return to work, thus ending a strike in effect since April 12. Other mine workers previously had voted to return and accept wage reductions amounting to about 15 percent.
The new scale for miners ranges from $4.75 to $5.25 a day.

RAIN INSURANCE GROWS POPULAR.
British Custom Gains Strong Foothold in America.
Companies Issue Policies on Weather Conditions.
Baseball Clubs, Amusement Men, Hotels Customers.
(BY A. P. WIRE)
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The British custom of taking out weather insurance has acquired a strong foothold in the United States.
Five major-league baseball clubs this season have thus safeguarded themselves on all of their Saturday, Sunday and holiday playing dates, while many minor league managers are similarly protecting their schedules.
More than $1,500,000 was underwritten in rain insurance for the last Fourth of July. It is estimated that $1,000,000 was paid policy holders. Labor Day is expected to break the month in which the event financial setbacks, which the elements might have caused on July 2.

MANY DROWNED IN JAPAN FLOODS.
Five Thousand Homes Are Submerged in Yamagata; Bridge Destroyed.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
YAMAGATA (Japan) Aug. 8.—Twenty-four persons are reported drowned in serious floods which are raging throughout the prefecture of Yamagata. Five thousand houses have been submerged and forty bridges destroyed by the floods.
The day of the Dempsey-Carpentier bout. The premium of this policy was reported to have been $75,000.
Colleges also have begun to insure against rainy Saturdays during the football season, and state and county fairs are likewise taking up the practice. Underwriters report that the heavy rains of the Pacific owners of boats used for holiday excursions are their biggest clients. In the winter they insure ice skating rinks on the temperature remaining below freezing.
SUMMER HOTELS.
Summer resort hotels insure themselves against bad weather over week-end and department stores do the same thing for days on which they have advertised sales expected to attract particularly large numbers of purchasers.
The insurance companies charge premiums ranging from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 per cent of the policy and even higher in rare instances. Rates are based on the average rainfall in any locality over a ten-year period and on the month in which the event insured is to take place.

WOULD JEOPARDIZE POSITION OF CHINA.
NOTED PUBLICIST IS OPPOSED TO PRELIMINARY MEET ON DISARMAMENT.
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TIEN-TSIN, Aug. 9.—Any preliminary meeting to the Pacific conference at Washington would jeopardize the position of China and render its presence at the conference practically useless, declared Liang Chi Chao, a well known Chinese publicist and the Far Eastern adviser to the Chinese delegation at the Versailles conference, in an interview here. Any attempt to arrive at a previous understanding regarding the Far Eastern problem before opening full discussion would in his opinion create a state of affairs that would be so complicated that questions as to make them impossible of solution.
The fear is being expressed in Chinese diplomatic circles that the big five powers again will endeavor to dictate to the rest of the world.
"The crimes of the Versailles conference have been completely exposed to the world," said Liang. "The ruling authorities have come face to face with a situation with which they are not disposed to compromise but which under the force of strong public opinion they have been compelled to do their best to solve. It is highly possible that the Pacific conference will afford them an opportunity to make necessary amendments and to adopt a new policy to suit the new circumstances."
Liang said the Shantung question should be settled at the conference and if Japan wanted to avoid it, it should return the German leasehold unconditionally. He also urged that the Far Eastern Russian republic at Chita be invited to send representatives to the conference since this government is honestly endeavoring to bring about peace in Siberia.
Liang in his writing is urging a national housecleaning for China in order that the nation present as solid a front as possible.

LABOR BOARD MAKES NEW PENNSY RULING.
RAILROAD OFFICIALS SAID TO HAVE TAKEN NO ACTION ON ORDER.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—The United States Labor Board made a third important ruling in the Pennsylvania Railway situation today when it ordered a secret ballot of employees to select a committee for negotiation of working agreements with the road's officials. This order cancels agreements reached by the road with a committee elected by a general vote, and which appeared to be working satisfactorily to everybody except the union-labor heads.
With but one day left to hold the conference under the board's order, Pennsylvania officials here said that no conference had been held to their knowledge and they knew of no arrangements for conferences to-morrow. The Federal wage board ordered that the conference should be held on or before August 10 to arrange a plan of election to insure the absolute secrecy of the ballot.
Reports in railroad circles here were that the Pennsylvania was not expected to take any action to comply with the board's decision.

GRAND JURY TO DIG INTO KENNEDY MURDER CASE.

Burch and Mrs. Obenchain Quizzed; Father of Victim Charges Plot; Killing Mistake, Says Woman.

Developments in the untangling of the Kennedy murder mystery by the combined forces of the District Attorney's and the Sheriff's offices simmered down to three salient features yesterday, none of which has aided in solving the mystery. These developments were:

An announcement was made by Dist. Atty. Woolwine that he believes he possesses enough evidence to place the case before the grand jury tomorrow.

A coroner's inquest over the body of J. Belton Kennedy was held during the afternoon, at which an open verdict was returned, stating the broker had died from a gunshot wound inflicted by persons unknown with intent to murder.

Dist. Atty. Woolwine held long conferences yesterday with Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, attractive divorcee and sweetheart of the slain broker, who is being held as a material witness, and with Arthur C. Burch, Northwestern University graduate, held as a suspect in the case. After these conferences, which lasted several hours, all the participants refused to comment.

During the conferences, two startling statements were made yesterday by John D. Kennedy, the murdered man's father, and Mrs. Emma Smart, mother of Mrs. Obenchain.

A direct accusation that the young broker was murdered as the result of a deliberate hold-up murder plot and that Mrs. Obenchain had tried every method to compel her son to marry her, was made at the inquest by Mr. Kennedy, Sr.

Mrs. Smart, mother of Mrs. Obenchain, stated that she believes the assassin, who killed Mr. Kennedy, had intended to slay her daughter, but by accident murdered the broker.

For four hours Mrs. Obenchain was quizzed by Dist. Atty. Woolwine. The woman had requested the interview. During the secret session, attacks of the office who had occasion to enter Mr. Woolwine's office stated she was in a cheerful mood, happier and looking better than at any other time during her imprisonment at the County Jail Saturday.

She talked freely, but at the close of the session Mr. Woolwine stated that he could not relate the newer developments in the investigation derived from his conference with the woman.

SENDS HURRY CALL. After the star-chamber conference had progressed for three hours, a hurried call was sent to the County Jail to fetch Burch to the District Attorney's office. Burch is the man who, from a hotel window opposite Mr. Kennedy's office, kept a cease-

MRS. OBENCHAIN IS CHAMPIONED.

Mother Assails Father of Victim in Murder.

Says His Bitterness Will Play Part in Case.

Tells of Younger Kennedy's Romance With Woman.

The bitterness of Mr. Kennedy, Sr., toward his daughter, Emma, was sometimes called her, will have a bigger bearing on this case than anyone realizes," was the statement yesterday of Mrs. Emma Smart, mother of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, who is held as a material witness in the murder case of John Belton Kennedy, who was shot to death last Friday night at his summer cottage in Beverly Glen.

Mrs. Obenchain had just embraced her mother when she left the County Jail to be conducted to the District Attorney's office. Appearing as a different woman from the wan and worn figure who, supported by both arms, actually dragged herself across Temple street Monday, Mrs. Obenchain walked briskly, with head held high and a dash of natural color in her cheeks. The meeting of mother and daughter was very brief. No word was spoken between them, but it left the mother in tears.

RELATES STORY. Stepping back into the shadow of the jail wall, Mrs. Smart told the story of one night at the former home of Mrs. Frank Demond, 427 South Occidental boulevard.

Shortly after my daughter's marriage to Mr. Obenchain, he had to go East on business and she remained a boarder in the home of Mrs. Demond," explained Mrs. Smart. "Belton Kennedy often came there to see her and one night his father stood on the front porch and in his incoherent language ordered his son to leave the house. When Belton refused to do so his father shouted, 'I will have this place pinched and have the whole bunch of you arrested, if you don't get out of there immediately.' The entire neighborhood was aroused by his tirade and the language he used."

I mention this because it is material proof that Belton Kennedy was pursuing his daughter and I understand that her attorney has sent a wireless message to Mrs. Demond, who is now on her way to Honolulu, requesting her to return to Los Angeles to appear as a witness in the case, if it is ever brought to trial."

Belton's pursuit could not possibly have been more insistent than that of his father. Mrs. Smart said that she had received a letter by special delivery to Madalynne, the latest arrived just before the ceremony and perturbed her daughter terribly. No, I cannot say what was in the letter."

PARENTS PROMISE AID. Complete confidence and support will be given Burch by his parents, it was learned here yesterday when the father and mother of the suspect became known. The first, sent to Los Angeles and relayed from there, reads:

"Dear Arthur: You have the love and absolute confidence of your father and mother in this great trial. We are at once should we come to California."

"FATHER AND MOTHER." Burch replied that he did not advise them to come at this time. The second telegram was received at the County Jail yesterday and undoubtedly was a reply to the wire sent by Burch from the train on the way to Los Angeles. It read:

"My dear Boy: Your wire received. Steps are being taken to assist in every way. Many telegrams and messages of full confidence in regard for you. If our going to Los Angeles will aid, wire us. Reply to this message. God bless you in love."

Mrs. M. Louise Wilson and John D. Kennedy. Mr. Kennedy, father of J. Belton Kennedy, mysteriously disappeared last Friday, gave dramatic testimony at the inquest, yesterday, when Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, material witness in the case, received mail here.

"SHE'S ONE WOMAN FOR ME."

Obenchain Says He Will Aid ex-Wife in Murder Case, But Must Remain in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—"She is the one woman in the world for me," today declared Ralph Obenchain, former husband of Madalynne Obenchain, who is held in Los Angeles in connection with the slaying of J. Belton Kennedy.

"Although we were separated by our divorce, our friendship has never ceased," he added. "I understand that Mrs. Obenchain said that press of business matters will prevent his going to California, but that he will do everything he can for Mrs. Obenchain here."

From another source it was learned that Mrs. Obenchain was one of those American travelers who, at the outbreak of the European war, in 1914, fled back to the United States. That was said to be the year in which she was to have returned to Northwestern University. Instead, it was learned she took up the study of dramatic art in New York. In the late winter of 1914 her father, J. B. Connor of Peasopond, N. D. died, and left her $50,000.

FREE SPENDER. "Madalynne," the informant said, "went through the money like wildfire. At the time of her divorce from Mr. Obenchain, about five years later, she had only $4000 left."

"But then, she always was lax about money matters. She never heeded the cost of things. I have known her to go to tea at a fashionable hotel when she really couldn't afford it, and then go to some ultra-exclusive shop and have some expensive gown or wrap created. She was too much of the butterfly type."

"She asked me once when I questioned her wisdom in managing her money, 'What difference does it make how a girl spends her own money? There is only one thing for a girl to be nowadays, anyway, and that is to marry someone with lots of money. It doesn't make much difference what sort of a man he is if he has money.'"

"About Madalynne and her mother and stepfather. Oh, they were never friendly. I understand at the time of Mrs. Smart's divorce from Mr. Connor, Madalynne sided with her mother and refused to live with her."

MOTHER PLEADS. From the same source it was learned that about Feb. 5, 1920—the Obenchains were divorced on February 11—Ralph Obenchain's mother came to Chicago from her farm in Indiana and pleaded with Madalynne to have nothing to do with Ralph.

That Arthur C. Burch actually intended to be in Chicago at the time of Mrs. Smart's divorce from Mr. Connor, Madalynne sided with her mother and refused to live with her."

Burch was in charge of the company office. The company went in to the hands of a receiver on last June 15. About July 25, Mr. Choyznick said Burch came to him and said:

"We are going away. If anyone comes looking for me or any of us show them this," and handed him the typewritten sheet, which read as follows:

"William A. Burch, 1018 South Wabash street, Chicago, Ill. After August 8, see Arthur C. Burch, 5037 Ravenswood avenue, care A. L. Hanfen Manufacturing Company."

A sign on the window of the former offices of the Pathscope Company reads: "Take all time to the A. L. Hanfen Company, 5037 Ravenswood avenue."

MAYOR IN DARK "JAZZ AGE" IS BLAMED FOR CRIME.

Not Even Crier Knew of Huge Power Bargain Sale.

New Clash Looms Before the City Council Today.

Four Mistakes Found in the Contract for Printing.

Not even Mayor Crier was advised of the negotiations preceding the sale of municipal power bonds last week for $1,965,000.

This significant fact came to light during an informal discussion at a meeting Monday evening of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the Empire State Valley at Mission Acres, when Mayor Crier stated he did not know of the deal, although he met with the Board of Public Service Commissioners on the day before the sale was consummated by the City Council.

The Council's action was based on the unanimous recommendation of the commissioners, who had then had the matter before them for about two weeks, according to the statement of President Howard Robertson.

Mayor Crier yesterday declined to discuss the matter for publication, saying that he referred to the power-bond sale only "informally and not in his address itself. In speaking before the Council, he only referred to the power situation was that more power is needed and that the only division of opinion is as to how the needed power shall be supplied."

At intervals the various officials responsible for the bond sale have asserted that there was nothing secret about the deal, and that it had been impossible to keep it secret even if it was desired. At other times they have stated that the sale had to be secret in order to prevent the "power trust" from blocking the deal. No statement has been forthcoming as to the inference to be drawn from the fact that the city's chief executive was one of those from whom the facts were kept.

NEW CLASH LOOMS. Another potential clash among the Councilmen over a phase of the power-bond sale looms for today in the City Council. Two reports of the Finance Committee are expected to be presented, one embracing the opinion of Councilman Mallard and the other the opinion of Councilman Mosher, chairman of the committee.

The division of opinion is over the discovery yesterday by Mr. Mosher of what he terms "four very vital errors" in the contract to print the bonds that were sold to the Southern California Edison Company.

He brought these assertions to the attention of the Council yesterday morning.

FOUR ERRORS. "An error has been made in the contract," he said, "by calling for the printing of 8-4 per cent bonds, whereas the sale calls for bonds to bear 5 per cent interest on their par value. In the contract for the printing of the bonds the words 'Chase National Bank of New York' appear eleven times in each bond, including the attached coupon."

"JAZZ AGE" IS BLAMED FOR CRIME.

Increase of Twenty-five Per Cent in Year Here; Four More Prosecutors Needed.

Criminal cases coming under the jurisdiction of the District Attorney's office have increased 25 per cent during the last twelve months and, as a result, it is anticipated that four additional deputy district attorneys will be appointed in the near future.

Today the following acting deputy district attorneys, who have been serving under an emergency measure, will take civil service examinations for the four vacancies created by the reorganization of the Board of Supervisors, which provides for the appointments: Ray Turner, Otto O. Eichen, William J. Linn, and Maxwell Burke. Maj. Thomas E. McClelland, James Costello and Edward Denker, acting deputy district attorneys at Long Beach.

Two years ago two departments of the Superior Court were able to handle all the criminal cases prosecuted by the District Attorney's office. Now it takes from three to five departments to handle the work. July, prior to this year, has never required more than two departments to handle the criminal cases.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Fricks attributes the rapid increase in crime to the "jazz age" during and following the war, which was and is marked by great extravagance in pleasure and dress. His opinion is that young men and women are keeping up with the times, because of the high cost of living, and are reluctant to establish homes and settle down.

According to Mr. Fricks, 31 per cent of the criminal cases in this county involve young men from 18 to 25 years of age. Most of them are fellows who returned from the service of their country and failed to drop back into steady and remunerative employment. To him, the "jazz age" is responsible, he says, for the present wave of crime.

LOVE OF PRETTY GARMENTS, which they see in the stores, causes many girls to commit offenses, Mr. Fricks says. It is his opinion that a return to simplicity in dress and quiet mode of living would be marked by a rapid decrease in crime. Greater economy in everyday life, he says, would result in young men marrying and establishing homes of their own. The "jazz age" is responsible, he says, for the present wave of crime.

BACKS CITY PLAN FOR BOULDER DAM PROJECT. The Central Labor Union, representing 30,000 workers, opposing a complicated plan for the City Council to acquire the Boulder dam site on the Colorado River. The communication contained a copy of the resolution which indorses the city's project as against the Southern California Edison Company's plan for development after declaring the public use of the labor council is for municipal ownership.

RAIDS NET MANY AS GAMBLERS. Three raids on purported gambling houses last night netted 300 prisoners and a large amount of cash.

MOLLEN & BLUETT QUALITY IN MEN'S WEAR SINCE 1883

You Hear It Right and Left! Young men are making some pleasing discoveries here this week. The new suits are in! Little changes in collar lines—in the cut of a back—in the hang of the trousers—all receive their share of attention. To say nothing of the new patterns and genuine goodness of the fabrics. But perhaps most comment is on the excellent value we are showing. $40 BROADWAY at SIXTH

Whispering
Brambach Baby Grand
The Renowned Los Angeles Composer, John Schonberger, at the Keyboard of the Brambach Baby Grand Piano
John Schonberger of Los Angeles, composed his great success, "Whispering," at the keyboard of his wonderful little BRAMBACH BABY GRAND PIANO.
He attributes much of the success of that composition to the excellent tonal quality of this remarkable instrument and the fact that it stays in tune well under the severe strain given it by composers.
Mr. Schonberger is now at work on a number to be entitled, "Rosemary," another Brambach Grand Composition.
THE BRAMBACH
occupies no more space than an upright. Because of its small size, 4 ft. 8 ins. long, it has a specially constructed scale, the result of years of experimenting and unceasing study. Its size, tone, touch and reasonableness of price make it

REPORT PREPARED.
A very excellent report has been prepared by the Director of the Reclamation Service, pursuant to an act of Congress, suggested by the Imperial Valley people, who considered some $75,000 to the expense of preparing the report. This is in no sense a government project, but rather a government investigation to determine what might be done and in this investigation the problem is attacked primarily from the standpoint of flood control and irrigation,
with power development as a side issue.
"Under all of these circumstances,"
the Southern California Edison Company is a candidate for the job of regulating the Colorado River and developing its potential power possibilities. This would be done under a twenty-year license from the Federal Water Power Commission, by the terms of which the government retains the right to take over the project, as a going concern, at the end of the period, by paying only the investment therein. Financing would be done through the people in the same manner as the present financing of the Edison company's projects, but expanding the operation to cover the seven Southwestern States and associating with it in the enterprise other companies operating in that territory and large mining and railroad interests desiring a power supply.
COMPLETE REGULATION.
The project will be under complete public regulation by the States bordering on the Colorado River and by the government itself. A large amount of cheap water power would be developed and, under regulation,
rates would be so fixed as to return to the people investing their funds in such projects, only a reasonable invest rate upon their investments and without discrimination in charges as between individual consumers or communities.
"The job is an enormous one—larger in financial outlay than the Panama Canal. To insure its speedy and economical development, it must be considered as a single project, with complete understanding and sincere co-operation of all of the people within the territory to be served, who will be benefited directly by the development, not only in the safety of flood control, but in the irrigation of an additional 2,500,000 acres of land and the consequent enormous industrial development in factories, building of cities and the increase of commerce
through our Pacific ports."

CRYER IN DARK
ON BOND DEAL.
pon, whereas it should be the Bankers' Trust Company of New York.
We will have to change the name in those cases.
"The third error is that each coupon under the contract is to represent $25.15 due in interest, but the amount under the contract with Mr.
Hellman is $25.
"The fourth very important error
is that under the Hellman agreement
the bonds are to mature at the rate of $25,000 annually from 1926 to 1941, but under the printing contract
the maturity is specified as $247,000 annually from 1921 to 1926 and $248,000 annually from 1927 to 1939, inclusive.
President Criswell stated that the matter should be referred to the Finance Committee.
"These matters are of the utmost importance," replied Mr. Musket,
"and some action should be taken without delay."
He then made a motion, seconded
by Councilman Sparks, that the Council recess in order that the Finance Committee could go into immediate session.
Mr. Criswell stated that such action was not at all necessary. Councilman Mallard also spoke against it, saying that a great number of people were in the Council chamber and that consideration should be given them first, that the matter of the bond contract could be taken up in an hour as well as then.
Mr. Musket's motion was lost by a 6 to 3 vote and he then agreed to a meeting of the Finance Committee providing Messrs. Criswell and Mallard would meet with him immediately after the Council session.
Attorney Mathews of the Public Service Department, his assistant,
Mr. Eberhart, and City Treasurer
Powell attended the meeting in addition to the Councilmen. Mr. Musket stated after the meeting that although the other two members of the committee declared the technicalities amounted to little, he himself would demand that immediate steps be taken to correct the errors,
acting in the belief they are of much importance.
When the Finance Committee holds its regular meeting this afternoon another phase of the power bond sale will be up for action. This deals with the prospects for selling the $1,500,000 worth of harbor bonds urgently needed in harbor improvements.
The sale of these bonds was tied up by the Hellman contract for the power bonds which required the pledge of the city that no other municipal bonds would be sold until sixty days after the delivery of the power bonds. When the delivery of the power bonds will be, no one has more than a guess, but a delay of several months in the sale of the harbor bonds is a probability.
Several large bond houses and banks have before the committee a suggestion that the harbor bonds be sold with the stipulation they will not be placed on the market
until the Hellman time limit expires. Chairman Musket and Mr.
Criswell both stated late yesterday that they had not been advised by Mr. Hellman whether a satisfactory agreement could be worked out.
Another development promised for today is the filing of the amended complaint testing the legality of the power bond sale. Attorney Ingie Carpenter, acting for Harry W. Anderson, taxpayer, has filed suit attacking the constitutionality of a new law under which the Council declares it has the power to set aside the will of two-thirds majority of the voters by agreeing to pay 6 per cent on the $1,500,000 worth of bonds instead of 5 per cent authorized. An amended complaint will be filed today. Mr. Carpenter asserted this action being taken in order to make the complaint "water tight"
since the first action was filed on very short notice.

Heavy has every indication of prosperity — abundant herds of cattle, substantial crops of wheat and corn, and heavy business depression and unemployment. I think the future is bright and the road is clear," declared W. C. Brown, president of the Central railroad system, en route to his Pasadena home from his headquarters in Chicago.
Heavy made an automobile tour of the Mississippi Valley from St. Louis to Chicago, and back to St. Paul, and had excellent views of the country from the train.
The view conditions are excellent in the great corn states of Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota.
Plans are being made for a heavy touring committee to be organized during a discussion of the "Commandment of the Day" by the Directors at Monday's meeting.
Heavy will visit central business, and agricultural districts.

The MOST COSTLY BANK ADVERTISING

The most expensive way to advertise a bank is to provide spacious and beautiful rooms; to employ plenty of competent help, and to see to it that every customer who may come into the bank gets cheerful, competent, considerate SERVICE.

Treat everybody who comes in just as if you expected them to recommend the bank to all their friends.

That is costly advertising—costly in money, in work, and in painstaking care. But after trying this method for 32 years, this bank still prefers it to all other advertising.

FILM CENSORS COMING HERE.

Ankles and Too-Long Kisses
Face Screen Fade-out.

Old-Fashioned Girl Stealing
Vamps' Popularity.

Eastern, Canadian Boards to be Laemmle's Guests.

Members of the official censor boards of Toronto, Montreal, Vancouver, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland and of the cities of Detroit and Kansas City, assembled in Chicago as guests of Carl Laemmle of the Universal Film Company, will leave today for Los Angeles.

The party will arrive in Los Angeles at 11:45 p.m., Sunday, August 14, over the Santa Fe. Harry M. Berman, general sales manager of Universal, will be in charge of the delegation.

After a brief reception at the station at which Mr. Thalberg will welcome the members of the commission to Southern California in behalf of Carl Laemmle, the party will be met by the Santa Fe Hotel, where Stanley Anderson, managing director of the hotel, will participate in entertaining them. Following a dinner at the hotel, the censors will receive Los Angeles newspaper writers, representatives of the motion picture trade publications and correspondents of news services.

After a brief reception at the station at which Mr. Thalberg will welcome the members of the commission to Southern California in behalf of Carl Laemmle, the party will be met by the Santa Fe Hotel, where Stanley Anderson, managing director of the hotel, will participate in entertaining them. Following a dinner at the hotel, the censors will receive Los Angeles newspaper writers, representatives of the motion picture trade publications and correspondents of news services.

As by this time the censors should be in high, good humor, they are to experience the "great moment" of their visit. They are going to be allowed to take a peek at Eric Von Stroheim's "Foolish Wives."

It is if there is anything in the picture the censors don't like, it is likely to be forgotten next day, when they will be taken on a trip to Catalina Island, where they will be the guests of William Wrigley, Jr., and Sunday will be devoted to religious services according to the preferences of the visitors.

PICTURE FUTURE.
Scenes on the silver screen without pistol, knife, ankle and too-long kisses! That is the cinema of the future picture, by these men, "Freakies" for girls, they say, are coming back; the vamp is dead; modesty will be the style this fall. The old-fashioned, after a decade, will again be celebrated on the magazine covers and the boulevards. And the "censor" is done for ever. All this, of course, without the consent of the film fans.

"Motion pictures are the weather-vanes that point to the fashions which will sweep across the continent," said Mr. Alexander S. Hamilton, film censor of Toronto. "What cinema actresses wear, say, do, or look like today—just that will be the fashion of the future. And the trend in the films right now is toward the wholesome, apple-scented sort of girl. Theaters which show this roushous type of girl are doing business; vamps are languishing. 'Freakies' now are a stamp of approval."

GUNS BARRED.
Toronto has a law which makes it impossible to show a gun on the stage, as children and heavy patrons of the shows. In Toronto they see good shows; every day they see better shows. The films are constantly becoming more educational. There are more front porches on the screen and fewer back porches. As censors we make no effort to "cure" motion pictures. We are not reformers; we are out to have fun. Main streets right now. The successful films are depicting the small town romances, the quietly dramatic life of the American home, the John and Mary stuff. Plays with a sex tinge are frowned on. The Countess Du Barry has gone to work as a milliner's assistant. The bedroom drama is bankrupt."

SAVE CONTINUITY.
And, to satisfy the curiosity of the screen clients, the motion picture censors were asked what they were stripping from the celluloid strips these days.

"We try not to spoil the continuity," said the censor. "The most two many films were utterly ruined by the injudicious cutting out of scenes that were necessary for the telling of the story. Now, if a part in our opinion, is slightly undesirable, we will let it stand if the story demands it."

"Are young girls given the impulse to go wrong by the 'heavy films'? We don't believe it. They may think it is very naughty to slip into the arms of a girl, but they are not doing anything such pictures having sobering effect. And boys are not made gunners and robbers by the cinema. Criminals are bred on the streets, the vicious pool halls—not in the cinema theaters. Parents, not the censors, are to blame when boys and girls go wrong."

SPAIN STILL SENDING MEN TO MELILLA.

Tribesmen Fighting Hard and Press Gen. Navarro at Mt. Arruit.

THE CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS. MADRID, Aug. 10.—The arrival of troops in Melilla continues. It is estimated here that shortly 50,000 men will be concentrated there. The number of airplanes has been increased, and ice, food and munitions are being sent by air to Mt. Arruit.

From Mt. Arruit it is reported that Gen. Navarro's forces continue to put a desperate fight against the tribesmen. The contingent are military chaplains who are being sent to Melilla to keep the tribesmen from attacking the town.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Reports received from Melilla, says a dispatch in the London Times from Tangier, that the tribesmen have captured part of Gen. Navarro's position on Mt. Arruit. Navarro's men are said to consist of 700 fighting men, all of the remainder being sick or wounded.

There has been a large increase in the enemy forces. The tribesmen of Melilla, says the dispatch, are fighting has taken place between the Spaniards and tribesmen on the Melilla peninsula. In the past, the tribesmen have been reported as loyal to Spain.

Too Many Baths Hurting America, Physicians View.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Too many baths, too much personal cleanliness, is breaking down the health of the American public, said Dr. J. Cameron Pickett, San Francisco physician, today before the convention of the National Association of Chiropractors.

Dr. Pickett's subject was skin lesions, and he declared the rapid increase in the prevalence of this condition convinced him America had been over-bathed. The subject of bathing too far, he said, his point was supported by the fact that golfers, tennis players and athletes were particularly susceptible to skin lesions.

HOOVER LAYS Tells Europe There is Only One People in

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Famine, chaos and will recur yearly until the Secretary Hoover declared in a speech before the House of Representatives, that the only way to prevent such a recurrence is to build up a strong, efficient government.

If the discussion of measures for the relief of Russian famine "is to be a success," the Secretary declared, "it must be a success in the eyes of the Russian people." He said that the only way to prevent such a recurrence is to build up a strong, efficient government.

"The famine in Russia," he said, "is of an extent entirely beyond the resources of all available private charity. It is a famine of the people, and it is a famine of the people."

Even times of economic hardship, the Secretary declared, "the relief of Russia involves the cooperation of the government, the business community and the individual."

"We have," Hoover stated, "on the part of the American people, a generous and sympathetic attitude toward the Russian people, and it is our duty to make the most of this attitude."
